

Magnificat

May my Lord be magnified, my savior I rejoice in Thee
Thou hast seen my lowliness and filled me with thy sanctity.

Henceforth generations will call me blessed and holy
For He, who's mighty, He who is strong has done great things for me.

He has scattered all the proud in their heart's imagination,
Exalting every humble soul in his acts of veneration.

He filled the hungry with all good and sent the rich away without
And He comes to fill with love, the hearts of His devout.

May my Lord be magnified, my savior I rejoice in Thee
Thou hast seen my lowliness and filled me with thy sanctity.
